- I. Welcome. SCL welcome all members and went over future meetings: 12/12, 02/06/23 & 04/24/23.
- II. Agenda
- III. New members, Mrs. Gomez took over Mr. Pizano’s old spot. SCL invited Mr. Dickson to join the FET since Bartola P's son graduated and we need 2 parents in this team.
- IV. SCL went over the model used for family engagement for the six types of family involvement. Based on Joyce Epstein’s model:

The six types of involvement:

Parenting: Type 1 – parent education and opportunities for parent education to support a learning environment.

Communicating: Type 2 - opportunities for communication between parents/school staff

Volunteering: Type 3 – parent involvement and recruitment to help support students

Learning at Home: Type 4 - provide ideas to help with homework and class work at home

Decision Making: Type 5 - inclusion of parents/families when making decisions about education

Collaborating with the Community: Type 6 - resource sharing for student/family needs

- V. SCL discussed events happening for families:
 - Title I Meeting 09/21/22

- Early Reader Program with Make Ways for Books starts 09/22 at 10:45 AM
- Movie Night 09/23/22
- Coyote Howl Engagement Night Zooms - 09/28 - ELA w/Mrs. Curtis, 10/20 – Mrs. Burgueño & STEAM, 12/08 – Mrs. Patsy & Holiday Art
- In person Math & Science Night on 11/17, I have invited the Girl Scouts, Truly Nolen, U of A Astronomy Club – Nicole suggested getting in touch with SciTech Institute for STEM tabling. Nicole agreed to send me their email.

VI. SCL talked about needing team to help in choosing needy families that might need help for the upcoming holidays. Mrs. Salcido agreed to send out a email to all teachers so they can let us know about families.

VII. SCL asked for ideas for parent engagement, and we discussed:

- Hispanic Heritage month and encouraging our parents to come in and read/talk to their students' classrooms or other classrooms. We discussed parents coming in and sharing stories, recipes. Mrs. Corday talked about this being good for Hispanic Heritage Month as well as Love of Reading month. Mrs. Corday talked about inviting neighborhood business owners to talk about being Hispanic and having their businesses in the community. Mr. Dickson stated that he can ask his nephew to participate, and he would let us know.

VIII. Questions – there were no questions. Meeting was adjourned.
