1. Welcome – SCL welcomed members

Thank you to all members for joining us and continuing to provide great input for family engagement and to help our school. We are always looking for new members. SCL asked if anyone knows of a parent that has expressed interest in volunteering, this will be an excellent opportunity. Please give SCL the phone number and I will call and explain the need.

2. Agenda – SCL went over the agenda

4. SCL has been tapping into community resources to come in to present or be at our event nights. I have been inviting people that can come and give information to our parents. Please let me know if you have any resources that we can use for our engagement Nights or our Cafécitos. SCL asked members to let me know whether they know of a resource or think about a parent/student activity that we can have in order to engage more of our families.

Suggestions:

- Inviting the U of A to Galaxy Night
- Inviting TUSD Multicultural Curriculum Department
- Mrs. Patsy suggested that Sam the Coyote come to our 1st and last day of our Scholastic Bookfair
- Mrs. Ally reported that she will do a sign in sheet for student council to help
- It was agreed that the Scholastic Bookfair will be in room A114

5. Questions?

Dr. Salcido asked whether SCL had numbers for our last curriculum/Bring your parent to school day. SCL reported that we had 75 parents attending this event.

No other question.
